

Vocabulary Day 05

ABOLISH

- You have no right to terminate/annul/eliminate/exterminate/rescind/abrogate/do away with/repeal the law.
- They plan to fabricate a cinema next year.

ABOLISH

- To forged a blade takes great skill.
- The lion slowly reared its head and looked around.
- The war memorial was erected in 1950.
- The main purpose of industry is to create wealth.

ABRIDGE

- We have learnt how to condense/compress/shorten/abbreviate serious messages into short
- You should find work to augment/enlarge/amplify your income.
- There are no plans to expand the local airport.

ABRUPT

- Hasty/Unexpected climbers have sudden falls.
- The doctor spoke in a brusque tone.
- His tone was curt and unfriendly.
- His health showed gradual improvement.
- She has a slow, deliberate/gentle way of talking.

ABSOLVE

- He was exonerated/exculpated/acquitted from the accusation of cheating.
- We all condemn/incriminate cruelty to children.
- Auxiliary Verb + Adverb + Principal Verb
- Subject + Adverb + Principal Verb

ABSTINENT

- He is abstentious/abstemious/moderate/
sober/ indulgent/intemperate in eating and drinking.
- The woman is very voluptuous/licentious/epicurean/sybaritic.