

Vocabulary Day 07

ACCOLADE

- He won the best actor
award/honor/tribute/distinction.
- We had to choose between death and dishonor/disgrace/ infamy/stricture.

ACCOST

- I had a frightening encounter/confront with a poisonous snake.
- Please address all letters to this office.
- How should I greet, with tears, with silence.
- The released criminal always tries to evade/avoid/shun/elude the police.
- I must withdraw some money from the bank.

ACROPHOBIA

- Many people suffer from very serious acrophobia/alto phobia/bathophobia.

ACERBIC

- He argued with me in a(an) acerbic/cutting/stinging/biting way.
- Sodium and sulphur are highly corrosive.
- Her speech was a caustic attack on government officials.
- The air was pungent with the smell of spices.
- She gave him a sardonic/satirical smile.
- Sharp tools make good work.
- Her kind/complimentary/bland/eulogistic/soothing appreciation inspires me.

ACQUIESCE

- All the citizens must comply with the law.
- Parliament gave its assent to war.
- I agree/accede with you to a certain degree.
- I accept you to a certain degree.
- She can't resist the lure of the bright light.
- She tried to disavow her past.
- He is tolerant of those who disagree with him.
- He used his position to repudiate the charge.
- People generally quarrel because they cannot argue.
- Congress is continuing to oppose the President's healthcare budget.