

Vocabulary Day 08

ACRID

- The minister received some harsh/irritating/sharp/resentful/caustic/acrimonious criticism.
- I knew she was just flattering me.
- I was astonished by her bland/mild/mealy-mouthed behavior.

ACRIMONIOUS

- His political speech is full of spite.
- His political speech is full of malicious/bitter/sour/virulent/rancorous.
- His behavior is very cordial/amiable/agreeable.

ACUMEN

- She can save herself in any situation, which is her shrewdness/sagacity/astuteness/perspicacity/discernment/keenness of judgment/insight.
- She cannot save herself in any situation, which is her ignorance/unawareness/shallowness.

ACUTE

- She can save herself in any situation because of her extreme/perceptive/keen wit.
- She cannot save herself in any situation because of her slight/obtuse/poor wit.

ADAMANT

- To go Cox-Bazar, he continuously behaves like a(an) stubborn/unyielding/inflexible/dogged/unwavering/resolute/steadfast/tenacious.
- To go Cox-Bazar, he behaves like a hesitant/pliable/flexible/pliant/susceptible.