

Vocabulary Day 06

ABSTRACT

- The main weakness of the proposal is conceptual.
- He later completed a lengthy study of Figurative Art.
- Can you give me the gist of this report?
- I must withdraw some money from the bank.
- We can extract oil from shale.

ABSTRACT

- I could elicit no response from him.
- They think she killed her husband, but they've no concrete evidence .
- Police have to be realistic about violent crime.
- The speaker lost himself in verbiage.
- Insert the key in/into the lock.

ABYSMAL

- He is a man of apparently boundless optimism.
- A beggar's purse is bottomless.
- His glance at her was unfathomable.
- Genius is an infinite capacity for taking pains.
- The lofty walls of the castle seemed impregnable.
- Deep rivers move in silence, shallow brooks are noisy.
- We bound the enemy to a post.
- Only a finite number of situations can arise.

ABSTRUSE

- He has an esoteric collection of old toys and games.
- Such teachings are very recondite and need considerable study to understand fully.
- Her poetry is full of obscure literary allusions.
- He gave us an intelligible explanation.
- You must write in a clear and lucid style.
- Glass is a transparent material.

ABUSIVE

- He ransacked his extensive vocabulary in order to find disgraceful/opprobrious / scurrilous / respectful names to call her.
- Kind hearts are more than coronets.

ACCLAIM

- The conference rose to applaud the speaker.
- This monument was erected in honor of the martyrs.
- His speech drew enthusiastic applause.
- I will send you the goods on approval.
- He is callous to rebuke/chide/reprove/reproach/upbraid.
- Even one minute's lateness would earn a stern denunciation/stricture/condemnation.